

NFOG 2008

XXXVI Congress of the Nordic Federation of Societies of Obstetrics and Gynecology

June 14th–17th 2008, Reykjavík Iceland

PROGRAMME AND ABSTRACTS

www.nfog2008.is

Dear colleagues, welcome to Reykjavík!

The 36th NFOG congress has commenced and many people deserve thanks for making this possible. Our federation, NFOG, plays an important role in bringing us together in events such as this congress and in helping us keep up our professional standards. During the next three days we are offered a great variety of lectures in all fields of Obstetrics and Gynecology. We are honoured by the outstanding speakers from the Nordic Societies and from both sides of the Atlantic. In addition to six plenary lectures, the NFOG symposium is a plenary on the global perspective of women's health. At all other times, four concurrent symposia will be ongoing so everyone should find something of interest.

It is a special pleasure to welcome our keynote speaker Dr. Dorothy Shaw, President of FIGO (Fédération Internationale de Gynécologie et Obstétrique). This gives us a valuable opportunity to listen to the leading voice of FIGO, whose mission is to promote women's health and safe motherhood and to raise the standards of practice in Obstetrics and Gynecology around the world.

On behalf of the local organizing committee and the NFOG Board, I warmly welcome you to this congress in Reykjavík, the capital city of Iceland, and hope that you will enjoy the scientific programme of the congress as well as the social events. Hopefully you will also have an opportunity to experience Icelandic culture and nature.

*Yours sincerely,
Þóra Steingrimsdóttir
Congress president*

Picture on cover:

Artist: Eggert Pétursson (b.1956). Untitled 2004–2005. Oil on canvas.

About the artist:

Eggert Petursson's sole subject is the Icelandic flora. Conceptual rather than decorative, his unique paintings of the minute tundra flowers of Iceland's seemingly barren landscape reveal, with dizzying effect, the universe within. Abstract at a distance, at close inspection his canvases are hyper-realistic – an infinite regression of painstaking brush detail creating each petal, stem and leaf.

The NFYOG board 2007 consisted of 10 members, 2 from each of the Nordic countries Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Iceland and Norway. Three board meetings were held.

The spring meeting was held in Helsinki where the final touches to the Copenhagen seminar 2007 "Is there a future for obstetrics?" were made.

The Copenhagen seminar "Is there a future for obstetrics?" was held in the Novonordisk conference facilities in Copenhagen on June 1st and 2nd. The seminar was evaluated by the participants and NFYOG board and viewed a success. A short board meeting was held immediately after the seminar.

In the fall of 2007 a board meeting was held in Stockholm. Susanne Hesselman resigned as President when she went on maternity leave. Stig Hill was elected new President of NFYOG. Both the Swedish board members (Åsa and Susanne) resigned. Planning of the pregress seminar in Reykjavik and commencement of planning of the NFYOG seminar in 2009 was begun.

Major events in the history of Iceland have taken place at Pingvellir, a declared National Park in 1930 and all Icelanders hold the place in high esteem. Today, Pingvellir is a protected national shrine. A law was passed designating Pingvellir as “a protected national shrine for all Icelanders, the perpetual property of the Icelandic nation under the preservation of a parliament, never to be sold or mortgaged.”

The Pingvellir area is part of a fissure zone running through the country, being situated on the tectonic plate boundaries of the Mid-Atlantic Ridge. The faults and fissures of the area make evident the rifting of the earth's crust. Today, Pingvellir is one of the most frequently visited tourist sites in the country. Each year, thousands of visitors go there to become better acquainted with Iceland's greatest historical site and jewel of nature. On this tour you will also be introduced to Icelandic herbs.

The group gathers around a table covered with Icelandic plants and herbs such as: Iceland moss, seaweed, angelica, and more. A guide explains the medicinal properties of those plants and gives examples of how the Icelanders use them to improve their health. The taste buds are teased with a refreshing herbal tea, some seaweed, warm milk infused with Iceland moss, and other traditional Icelandic herbal delicacies. The participants then get the secret recipe of the “sorcerer's lupine root drink” plus a small goodbye present before heading back to Reykjavik
