

Statutes for the Nordic Federation of Young Obstetricians and Gynecologists.

§ 1. Nordic Federation of Young Obstetricians and Gynecologists (NFYOG), is an association of the national societies (FUGO, Norway; OGU, Sweden; FYGO, Denmark; EGO, Finland; NFK, Iceland) which organizes trainees in obstetrics and gynecology and younger specialists in the field. NFYOG is a sub group of the Nordic Federation of Societies of Obstetrics and Gynecologists (NFOG).

The domicile for the organization is connected to the treasurer.

§ 2. The purpose of the association is to encourage the collaboration between trainees and young obstetricians and gynecologists in the Nordic countries and to work for a good education in the specialty. The purpose with a closer Nordic collaboration is to gain inspiration and exchange experiences in matters regarding training. The work of the NFYOG board can be followed on the webpage NFOG.org under “trainees”. The minutes will be posted on the webpage.

§ 3. The NFYOG board consists of up to two representatives from the national boards of each Nordic country. Each is nominated by their respective national societies.

§ 4. The board constitutes itself. The chairperson and treasurer are elected for a period of two years. Re-election can take place only once. It is aimed that the post as a chairperson alternates between the countries.

If the board finds it necessary, it is possible to constitute on other posts. The chairperson is responsible for summoning and leading the board meetings. Board meetings are alternating between the countries and will take place twice or three times a year. The minutes are taken by the host country.

The aim is to arrange board meetings in relation to ENTOG council’s meetings and the NFOG congress.

§ 5. The economy of the association is based on contributions from NFOG, sponsors etc. There is no subscription.

The association has a bank account in the country of the treasurer and is the signatory of the account. The chairperson is responsible for the association financially. The consecutive financial records are presented to the board.

§ 6. The treasurer of NFOG audits the accounts on a yearly basis. The account year follows the calendar year, and the accounts are forwarded to NFOG by April the 1st the following year.

§ 7. The National representatives can for shorter or longer periods of time refrain from participation in the work of NFYOG. The association is considered dissolved if less than three countries are represented in the continued work. In this case any assets of the association will be transferred to NFOG.

§ 8. Changing these statutes requires agreement from the NFOG board.
